Overview

WIGGLE WOOD is a truly independent production and a groundbreaking musical animation. Home to three adventurous young caterpillars — Cyd, Chadwick & Cosmo — the series follows the Wigglers as they take their first steps into an exciting world, learning how to manage their emotions, meeting new friends, and uncovering nature's best kept secrets.

Guided by Bellona, their guardian butterfly, the Wigglers discover that it's their differences that make them successful — and that being unique can be their very own superpower... just so long as they can work together.

A modern take on Aesop's fables where every adventure offers a mirror into Cyd, Chadwick and Cosmo's own lives. Children and families will come for the comedy and music, but they will stay for the lovable characters and valuable insights into their own emotional well-being.

– MEET THE CAST

The Characters

All three caterpillars are inquisitive and resourceful, but each has a very different approach. While slightly older than the target audience, Cyd, Chadwick and Cosmo are just like human 5-year-olds, beginning to see the subtle grey areas where life isn't quite so straightforward.

CYD

Innovative / Procrastinator

A thoughtful dreamer who doesn't just think outside the box — she imagines a world where there isn't one. She approaches problems from a completely unexpected angle, and her solutions are equally convoluted... but they work... sort of.

The most emotionally aware Wiggler, she always considers her friends' feelings, so much so that she overthinks everything. In her mind, no problem is too big, but she must work through every possible outcome before she fixes it.

Likes Mysteries, puzzles, big ideas and Wiggle-pops (popcorn)

Dislikes Feeling rushed; failure — everything has to be perfect

Dance move Back spin — looks cool and helps her see the world from a different angle

Catchphrase "Slow and steady... leaves more time for fun!"

COSMO

Proactive / Impatient

Determined, knowledgeable and never a minute late. A natural leader who always says what's on her mind and has everything planned before the others have found their shoes.

She is older than the other Wigglers (if only by a few minutes) and loves to remind them of it. Her single-mindedness often causes her to race past the emotional and magical moments.

Likes Buttercup nectar, plants and ecology, giving a good lecture

Dislikes Waste, inefficiency, thoughtlessness that impacts the natural world

Dance move The belly buster — a caterpillar version of 'the worm'

Catchphrase "If you want something done properly..."

CHADWICK

Headstrong / Emotional

The high-energy, high-spirited joker of the group. Born without back legs, Chadwick uses a wheelchair, but he is always first to the finish line. Fast-talking, fast-moving, driven by instinct, confidence, and a love of making people laugh.

His emotions run at full volume. When things go well, it is the best day ever. When they don't, it is a total disaster. Passionate, messy, and impulsive.

Likes Practical jokes, racing, and blueberry juice

Dislikes Being ignored, coming last, rainy days if he has to stay inside

Dance move Caterpillar Curl — rolls into a ball and backspins like a pinball

Catchphrases "Someone needs a hug!" · "Race you... I won!"

BELLONA

Caring / Nurturing

The warm, wise heart of Wiggle Wood. Calm, compassionate, and endlessly kind, she helps the Wigglers reflect, grow, and find their own way. Like a cool big sister — always nearby but never overbearing, giving the Wigglers space to 'wiggle out' problems for themselves.

She seems to know everyone in Wiggle Wood. Through her many friendships we glimpse her colourful past, reminding us that even the wisest butterflies were once little wigglers.

Dance move The Butterfly Flutterby — an airborne pirouette

Catchphrases "What can we learn?" · "Tell us your story." · "You teach me."

Guest & Recurring Characters

Each episode introduces a woodland resident whose problem mirrors what the Wigglers are experiencing — giving the audience empathy and insight through a fresh perspective.

LUNA GLOW-WORM

Shy, sweet, and quietly determined. Already a series fan favourite — a glow-worm with stage fright who doesn't believe her glow is good enough.

ROBIN ROBIN

Theatrical, opinionated, and ever so slightly pompous. Carries himself with the air of a retired stage actor who has never quite retired. Tender beneath his bluster.

Oliver Owl

Robin's nocturnal neighbour. Loves to DJ through the night with the joy of someone who has never been told to keep it down.

Flora the Honeybee

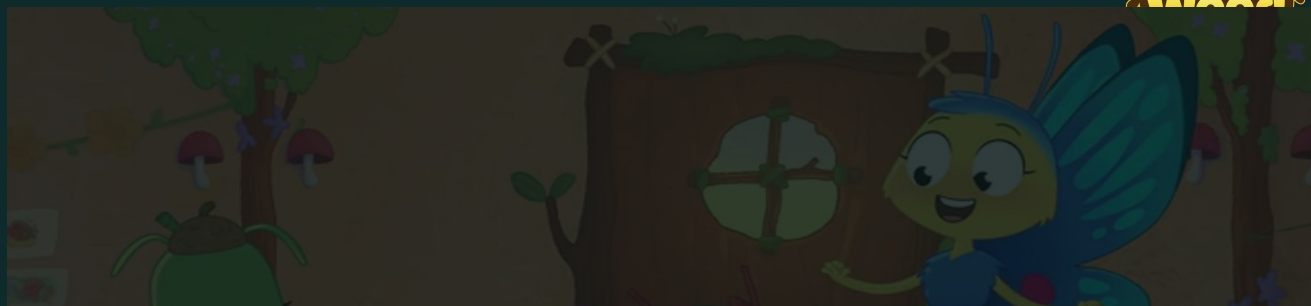

Always busy, always buzzing, never stopping long enough to think. Means well, but her busyness often causes the problems she's too busy to notice.

Nancy Weaver

A mischievous spider with a gift for spinning stories. Not dishonest — she just has a very creative relationship with the truth.

Admiral Butterfly

A gruff old friend of Bellona's who is too proud to ask for help. His grumpy exterior hides a soul desperate for friendship.

– STRUCTURE & RUNNING ORDER

Episode Format

Every 10-minute episode follows the same carefully considered structure — a repeatable emotional journey designed to resonate with preschool children and build genuine developmental value through storytelling, music, and reflection.

- 1 The Emotional Trigger
 Each episode begins with one or more of the Wiggles experiencing a moment of emotional difficulty — worry, frustration, anxiety, anger, or uncertainty.
- 2 Wiggle It Out
 An uplifting transitional music video moment in which the characters sing, move, and release their feelings. As the song ends they find themselves somewhere new in Wiggle Wood.
- 3 The Guest Character
 In a new location the Wiggles encounter a woodland resident facing a problem that mirrors their own. Children learn through empathy, not instruction.
- 4 Return to Caterpillar Cubby
 The Wiggles return home and reflect on what they've experienced with Bellona. The episode closes with a reflective song. The emotional lesson is gently consolidated.
- 5 The Mindfulness Moment
 Every episode ends with a short mindfulness segment during the credits — simple, age-appropriate meditations focused on self-worth, calm, and gratitude.

– THE SERIES USP

Music

Wiggle Wood's USP is its musical heart. The series features many original songs — some written by Musical Director Jax Jones, others by children's songwriting duo Banks & Wag. Music unites broader demographics and encourages co-viewing. The timeless songs will enable Wiggle Wood to be a show that is 'hard to grow out of'.

Three Songs Per Episode

- 1 Wiggle Wood Rock (working title)
The opening theme — an inclusive introduction welcoming everyone to Wiggle Wood, where no problem is too big and no hero is too small.
- 2 Wiggle It Out
The recurring pop song that encourages the Wigglers and audience to shake away their worries. A foot-stomping, heart-pounding call to action that gets children and families moving.
- 3 Reflection Song
Led by Bellona, this big musical number wraps the story up. Ten different reflection songs — each themed around a different emotional lesson — repeat throughout the series.

Musical Influences

'Walking On Sunshine'	Katrina and the Waves
'Wake Up Boo'	The Boo Radleys
'Can't Stop the Feeling'	Justin Timberlake
'Happy' / 'Just a Cloud Away'	Pharrell Williams

The World of Wiggle Wood

Wiggle Wood is a traditional woodland — a natural, temperate environment broadly situated in the UK. As such, the world has seasons, offering a huge variety of stories to tell. Some creatures live in the woods and some are just passing through.

Caterpillar Cubby

At the centre of the woods stands the Great Oak, and nestled in one of its 700-year-old branches is Caterpillar Cubby — the home, school, and safe place for Bellona to teach her Wigglers.

Wiggle Wood Way

The main highway through the woods — a forest track bringing a diverse range of visitors to the area.

Pebble Brook

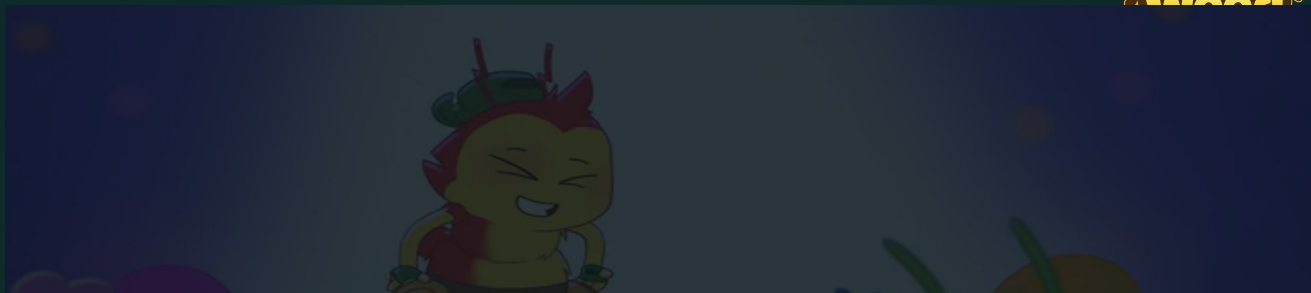

A slow-running stream passing by the Great Oak. Shallow enough for the Wigglers to play near safely — racing model leaf boats in the sunshine.

Midsummer Meadow

A vibrant flower meadow home to a bustling population of small animals and insects waiting for the Wigglers to lend a helping hand.

Lily Pad Lake

A pond that looks like a giant lake to the little Wigglers — where they enjoy lakeside adventures and go waterskiing with the pond-skaters.

– DESIGN & ANIMATION

Look & Feel

Wiggle Wood is realised in 2.5D animation — 2D characters given a degree of shading and weight, while backgrounds have depth of field and dynamic lighting that suggests a real-world backdrop to the Wiggles' adventures.

Characters are designed to feel aspirational. Their unique silhouettes make them instantly recognisable: Cyd is round and cuddly, Cosmo is long and wiggly, Chadwick is compact and speedy — but a design commonality makes them feel like a team.

Caterpillars are naturally fuzzy and the heroes look very soft and huggable. All movements will be replicable in the real world — the audience will want to dance along with them.

Design Philosophy

"This is the antithesis to over-stimulation. Think: accessible calm action and comedy — a family comedy where pacing and tone is appropriate for the youngest viewers, while layering in additional gags for older siblings and parents."

The Rules of Wiggle Wood

Wiggle Wood is...

- A big, wide world, seen through the lens of a small child
- Full of wonder — nature is magical and every creature has a lesson to teach
- Where real-world challenges become supersized from the kids' point of view
- Where the laws of physics apply — there is no magic, beyond nature's own
- A world without humans

Caterpillar Cubby is...

- A safe place where children can reflect on their experiences and grow
- Where we don't avoid difficult questions and age-appropriate behaviours
- Where failure is nothing to be afraid of
- Where differences and individuality are championed

The Wigglers are...

- The audience's best friends — real kids, with real joys, worries and questions
- Fallible and make all the same mistakes as real children, but they always learn from them
- A mirror for the audience — every child should identify with at least one character

Sample Storylines

Ten episodes are developed to outline stage and ready for production. A further twenty episodic springboards are prepared.

A Sticky Situation

Chadwick is determined to learn the bluebell horn but won't accept help. In the wood, the Wigglers find Red Admiral Butterfly stuck in sycamore sap — and now Chadwick is stuck too. One by one the whole group gets stuck. They call for help, drawing Barbara the Stag Beetle, who soon has everyone free. Back at Caterpillar Cubby, Bellona leads a song about asking for help.

Theme: It's OK to ask for help.

What's In a Name?

Cosmo is frustrated that Chadwick and Cyd call strawberries different names. In the wood they meet Colin Woodlouse. Cosmo lists woodlouse nicknames enthusiastically — Colin stomps off in a huff. Bellona nudges Cosmo to ask which name Colin prefers. Colin smiles: 'It's... Colin!' Everyone laughs.

Theme: Respect what people choose to call themselves.

Funny Bug

Chadwick keeps jumping out on Cyd and Cosmo. In the wood he meets Simon Stick Insect and they begin a prank-off — but both soon tire of each other's gags. Then Cyd and Cosmo arrive in fabulously silly hats and both friends roll around laughing. Chadwick realises: they made him laugh without a single prank.

Theme: There are lots of ways to make people laugh.

Noisy Neighbours	Cosmo bumps into Oliver Owl, who can't sleep because Robin Robin loves to sing through the night.
